

Planning your ultimate alfresco

11 Questions to get you started

Whether it's starting from scratch, revamping your patio into a divine ultimate alfresco area or extending your outdoor entertaining area, you need a plan of attack.

So, to help get you started, we have narrowed it down to 11 Questions to consider when planning your ultimate alfresco.

1. What is my alfresco area going to be used for?

2. Am I designing it for entertaining or for me time?

3. How often do I plan to use my alfresco area?

4. What time of day will I use my alfresco area the most? Will it be morning, afternoon or evening?

5. What is the orientation of my alfresco area?

6. Do I plan to use it all year round?

7. How much maintenance am I prepared to do?

8. Do I have trees overhanging that will drop leaves?

9. Do I want my alfresco area to be weather proof?

10. What look and feel do I like in designs?

11. Do I want flexible roofing and walls, or fixed structures?
